Please comment on yours / your child's experience with your lessons at Lanzon School of Music.

My two boys aged 13 and 10 have been having drum lessons with Ben for the past 10 months. He has been an incredibly positive influence instilling a love of music and rhythm in them. His teaching methods are structured and well thought out and my children so look forward to their weekly lessons. I can see an amazing progression and passion in my son's level of playing in such a short time. Ben helped my 13 year old with compilation of a drum solo recently and he got a real buzz out of Ben recording his playing during a lesson.

Please write about your teacher in your own words, what he/she does, quality of his/her service etc.

I was initially cautious in selecting a drum teacher for my boys and as any parent want positive role models in their lives .I was impressed on my first meeting with Ben who is extremely well educated being a civil engineer and the manner in which he communicated and continues to with my boys and myself. He is always punctual and well organised and sense that is the way he is with everything that he does. I have been amazed on how he is able to fit in what he does, multitasking and still able to give everything 110%!!

As part of his service he has helped my boys source out a great second hand drum kit (in his own time on the weekend delivering it to our home on a Saturday afternoon),advised on new skins and their fitting (just in time for Christmas) and ongoing tuning of the kits .

Please indicate if you would recommend Lanzon School of Music to others interested in learning the drums, guitar, bass guitar, singing or piano and if desired why or why not.

I have been told that good music teachers are "worth their weight in gold "and I can wholeheartedly recommend Ben as not only a good but GREAT teacher!! My son who just performed his own drum solo at a music recital at school was told my another boy who had been taking lessons through school for 4 years that he plays so amazingly well and found it hard to believe that he has only been playing for such a short time :-)
